

Welcome to the World's first Fairtrade Communion Wine!

Created by Vinos Los Robles, Chile's leading Fairtrade winery, Poterion Fairtrade Communion Wine is a blend of premium Chilean grapes, Semillon and Merlot, grown in the Curico valley.

Vinos los Robles combines winemaking excellence with social initiatives.

Following a devastating earthquake in 1939 which killed over 10,000 people, the Los Robles Co-operative was set up by local farmers and workers to help rebuild the community. In June 2004 the winery was the first South American winery to be accredited by FLO.

The Fairtrade premium has already supported a range of projects for the workers and the local community, including the purchase of a school bus – bought for children of El Corazon district.

Poterion (Greek for 'cup') is distributed By Whitebridge

Wines, an independent, family-owned wine shipper set up in 1984. Founded by Francis Peel, an Oxford theology graduate, the company imports wine from all over the world direct to their wine warehouse in Stone, Staffordshire.
